

PRIVACY POLICY

The Company “Parco Vacanze Lo Scoglio” Srl undertakes to treat as confidential all the data, reports, information and documentation provided by the Customers or which it has become anyway aware.

Pursuant to article 13 of the Legislative Decree 196/2003 and subsequent amendments (Personal Data Protection Code) and in compliance with Regulation UE 2016/679, the “Parco Vacanze Lo Scoglio” Srl, with legal headquarter in P.zza Cordeviola 21/3 and operational headquarter in Via Tedisio n. 95 in Lavagna -GE - (parcovacanzeloscoglio@gmail.com – tel. 0185-395738), as manager, informs Customers that personal data provided from himself (name, address, Tax ID, telephone numbers and email addresses) will be processed for purposes strictly related to the management and execution of the existing business relationship, as well as to comply with the linked legal obligations.

Customer’s personal data may be shared with external third parties involved in the business organization such as accountants or administrative Studies . These third parties Studies will be given only the information that are strictly necessary for the execution of their operations also by using electronic or automated means and appropriate databases, in order to ensure the security and confidentiality of the data. The Customers are warned that in case of non-acceptance of this way of treatment of their Personal Data, the commercial relationship can not be executed.

The period of retention of the data is determined by legal provisions with regard to the period of retention of associated fiscal documents. The Customer is entitled to access to his personal data, to have it amended or to submit a complaint to the Italian Data Protection Authority (Garante della Privacy: www.garanteprivacy.it).

The Customer expressly allows the Company to process and communicate his personal data to third parties for purposes related to the management of the existing business relationship and for direct and strictly linked purposes for the execution of the same.